

Eng. Amal Mobadda

Chief Fundraising Officer, Misr El Kheir Foundation

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Egyptian Federation of Intellectual Disabilities
Chairman of the Board of Directors of the African Federation of Intellectual Disabilities
Governing Board member of World Intellectual Impairment Sport (Virtus)
Egyptian Paralympic Committee board member

Amany El-Rafei

Former Head of the Administrative Prosecution Authority (APA)

She started her law career at the APA in 1975 as an administrative prosecution deputy at many sectors in her home-city of Alexandria, until she was promoted to work at the Technical Office of the APA Chairman in 1994.

Rafei is the fifth woman to head a judicial authority in Egypt. She was born in Alexandria governorate, She graduated with a BA in law from Alexandria University in 1971; then she obtained a Master's degree in public law two years later.

Dr. Amira Edris

Pediatrics Neonatology – Rofayda Clinics

Dr Amira Edris is specialized in neonatology, providing medical care for ill newborn infants or premature. Initial training was at Kasr Al-Ainy hospital, where she received her bachelor's degree, master's degree and MD.

Dr. Amira Edris is currently a member of the council heading the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at A-Monira Hospital where she is specialized in intensive care to premature babies to help them pass to the mature phase.

Christiane Abdallah

Owner & Board member Marmonil Marble and granite

She is the OWNER & BOARD MEMBER | MARMONIL MARBLE & GRANITE since 1985. Over the last 55 years,

Marmonil has evolved from a family business to Egypt and the region's largest vertically integrated stone producer.

She has different activities as member American Chamber of Commerce Member Italian Egyptian Business Council, member Egyptian Korean Business Council, gold Patron of The Egyptian Museum, member Friends of the Opera Group and VP International Club for Social Activities.

Dr. Hanan Magdy

Deputy Governor of the New Valley

Dr. Hanan Magdy, Deputy Governor of the New Valley for the youth of the presidential councils. She has been qualified for the presidential program for the rehabilitation of young people for leadership positions and is the first young qualified for this program. She worked as a chemist at Qasr Al Aini hospital, a Quality control chemist in one of the major companies for the production of medicinal and aromatic oils and food products and Director of the branch and the engineers area for a group of famous medical laboratories.

Germien Amer

Head of Corporate Communications, The United Bank

Germien Amer has extensive experience in institutional communications in the banking market both in local and international banks.

Germin has held several positions in a number of banks and large local and international companies including: Commercial International Bank – and Orascom Telecom – one of the projects of American Aid – and the city of Dream Park – and the channel of ART, as well as Gulf News and Media in The United Arab Emirates.

Dr. Ghada Michel Elias

Head of public relations at Sanofi Egypt

Ghada Michel Elias brings over 25 years of health communications experience, acquired in senior regional roles at leading pharmaceutical companies, to her current post as head of public relations at Sanofi Egypt, which she joined in 2012.

She continues to oversee corporate communications and the implementation of awareness campaigns on various health topics today, work she began in 1992 when she established a public relations department at Boehringer Ingelheim in Cairo, remaining with the company as Regional Communications Manager for 13 years.

Hala Borai

Independent Consultant & Board Member

Former GASCO's Vice President for Financial and Commercial Affairs,
Former ECHM's Vice President and Board Member

Hala Borai is an accomplished Strategic Financial Professional aggressively involved in all strategic decisions and assuring their implementation. With over 38 years of experience in Finance, HR, and Business Development, served as Director of the Board in several companies. Availed recent technologies to unlock value and drive more profitable growth. Always ensure the viability of Sustainable Long-Term Returns and Deliver Outstanding Shareholder's Value.

Hanaa El Hilaly

Chairperson of Aspire Holding Company, Managing Director Alkheir Microfinance

El Hilaly is a member of the Advisory Board Global Council for Women in banking sector, Managing Director and Board Member at Amwal Financial Investments Pioneer Holding Group, Member of the High-Level "Team of Independent Development Goals United Nations – Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), and Member of the Board of Directors at Al Tadamon Microfinance Foundation – Egyptian Association for Small Enterprises SMEs.

Ms. El Hilaly won an International Award on Middle East Level at a competition organized by International Arbitrators- Consultative Center for Arbitrators "CCA" by winning Jury and Public Votes in June 2016 for her Achievements in Development and Humanitarian Giving.

Hoda Mansour

Head of Business Process Intelligence (BPI) for Southern Europe, Middle East & Africa at SAP

Hoda held the role of managing director of Egypt & Frontier Countries at SAP before being promoted in September 2021 to Head Business Process Intelligence for SAP in MENA South, a region covering 75 countries. Hoda is a senior executive who lived and worked in 3 different continents and was the first woman to be appointed in Egypt to lead a multinational software company. She worked for leading multinational software companies including SAP, Oracle, and Microsoft in regional and global capacities. Given her transformational impact, Forbes acknowledged her leadership by recognizing her as one of Forbes Top 50 Women in Technology in the Middle East in March 2022, in addition to Forbes Top 50 Power Businesswomen for 2022 and 2021.

Jailan Shindy

The late Jailan Shindy was the managing partner at Shindy & Associates Inc. The latter was established in 1986 as the first multi-disciplinary consulting firm in business, finance, and law in Egypt. It offers services in the areas of valuation, business development and financial restructuring. The company has also been renowned for its credit and finance training programs. The company offers its services to a wide range of companies as well as banks.

Dr. Laila El Khawaga

Professor of Economics, Faculty of Economics
& Political Science, Cairo University

Worked as expert and consultant for several international (UNDP USA and ILO Geneva) and regional organizations (Arab Labor Organizations, ESCWA, and Arab council for women). In 2001, she has been appointed as an independent Senator of Shura Council till January 2011. Then she became the Head of Economic Department, Faculty of Economics and Political Science, Cairo University till she retired in 2012.

Lamia Youssef Abdelhakim

Head of studies & design, Head of the feed in tariff central unit for renewable energy projects

Lamia has a 15 years' experience as a project engineer in EEA (Egyptian Electricity Authority) Now EEHC.

She is the Winner of the best initiative of the year 2014 from MESIA (Middle East Solar Energy Association) and also the Winner of the African Energy Regulatory personality of the year 2016, from African energy leadership magazine.

Lobna El Bayar

Assistant Sub-Governor information technology at Central Bank of Egypt

Lobna M El Bayar has a 25 years' history of work experience in IT across multiple industries including telecommunication, IT services and consulting, oil and gas, healthcare, banking, local government, and software house.

Throughout her career, she managed to work in partnership with business management, advising them on how to use information technology in order to meet their business objectives or overcome problems.

Lobna Dessouki

Senior Advisor at European Bank for reconstruction & development enterprise growth program, Board member & chair of audit committee at GB Lease & GB Auto

She is currently Independent member of the Advisory Board of Alexandria Business Association Small and Micro Enterprise Project, independent Board and Audit Committee member at Cleopatra Hospital Company.

She is also an advisory services rendered enable enterprises to make structural changes and develop new business skills at senior management level helping them to thrive and compete in market economies and attract investments, adjunct Professor in the School of Business at American University in Cairo and teaches MBA finance courses at Eslsca Business School, and advisor to the Audit Committee of Qalaa Holding (Citadel Capital)

Lobna is Member of the Association of Corporate Governance Practitioners, MGP, Association of Corporate Governance Practitioners (ACGP), UK and Certified Director from the Egyptian Institute of Directors.

Dr. Madiha Khattab

Chairman of Afripharma

Dr Khattab is the chairman of Afripharma. The first woman dean of the Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University as well as the chair of the Board of the University hospitals (5200 beds); the first woman director of the New Kasr Alainy Teaching Hospital, (1200 beds)

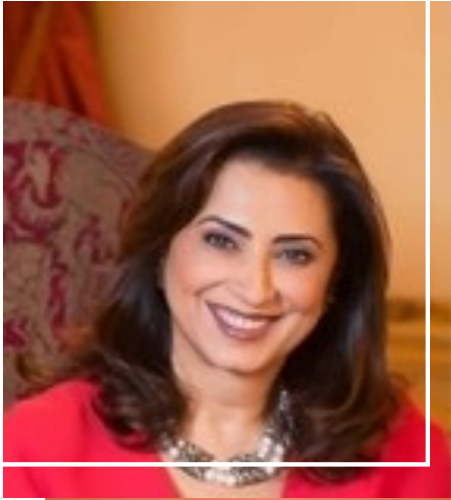

Dr. Khattab is a Professor of Internal Medicine at Cairo University. She is a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, UK and is the first Egyptian federation lead of the royal colleges of physicians of the United Kingdom. She is a health-policy expert chaired health committee of the national council of women and the parliament and delivered policy papers on health development and universal national health insurance. She coauthored the health chapter on the Egypt second national communication for climate change (2010) and the third African outlook express for environmental changes (2012).

Prof. Dr. Manal Awad Mikhail

Damietta Governor

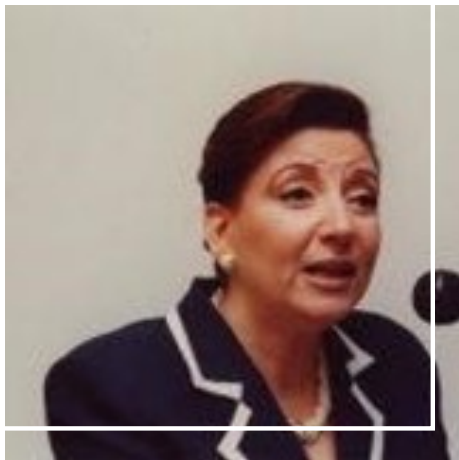

She was selected as a member of Réseau des Femmes Elues Locales d’Afrique (REFELA) in June 2019. Her outstanding efforts aptly contributed to selecting Damietta Governorate as one of The UNESCO Global Network of Learning Cities in 2019. She also received, on behalf of Damietta governorate, the UNESCO Learning Cities Prize for the 2021. Damietta governorate was selected by the UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning (UIL), upon the recommendation of an independent jury of international experts, as one of 10 global cities awarded for embracing lifelong learning. During the same year, she played an instrumental role in the implementation of the “Safe Cities and Safe Public Spaces” programme, in partnership with the National Council for Women (NCW) and UN Women Egypt. Accordingly, Damietta was ranked the second safe city. Further, she received the Academy of Scientific Research Award for selecting Damietta as an innovation capital in 2018. In 2019, Damietta was the Academy’s winner of the International Cooperation Award. In recognition of her efforts, she also received 7 government excellence awards for the years 2019 and 2020. The forum awarded her for the second time for her relentless efforts in steering the sustainable development ahead during the ‘Women Towards New Horizons’ event in Qubba Palace in 2021.

Dr. Manal Hussein

Executive Chairwoman of New City Developments.

Dr. Manal Hussein is the Executive Chairwoman of New City Developments. She was the chairwoman of Orascom Development, first deputy Minister of Finance, and member of the Shoura council. She currently sits on different boards of directors and heads the Women In Business for the third term in AMCHAM, Egypt.

Dr. Manal Khedr

Professor of Civilization Department French Language and Literature , Faculty of Arts , University of Cairo She was ranked first in her class.

She had several scientific contributions, as she wrote several books, supervised several academic theses, as well as translating French books into Arabic. She was a board member at several scientific institutions the Egyptian Association of French Language Teachers, Egyptian-French Parliamentary Friendship Association and the International Comparative Literature Association. She was also a founding member of the Egyptian Translators Association.

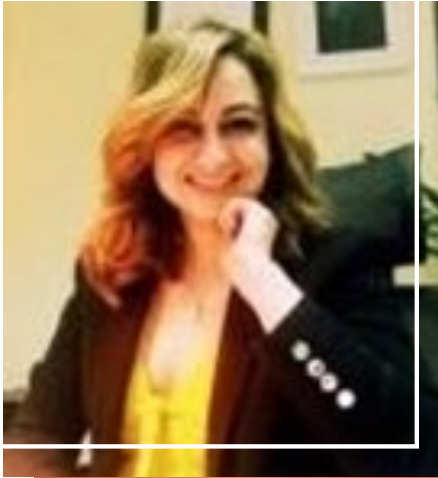

Mariam Fahmy

Partner – Shalakany law office

Mariam is a member of shalakany's project development and finance, banking and finance and capital markets departments. She handled several ppp projects, acting for both the procuring entity and the bidders.

She is also currently acting on behalf of a consortium of IFIS as lenders local counsel in relation to two new BOO wind farm power projects with a combined capacity of 500 MW. She is also acting for SACE and the commercial lenders in relation a USD 1.2 billion financing of the modernization and expansion of MIDOR'S refinery.

Merit EL Sayed

Managing Director, Business development & strategic projects impementation at EICONS construction

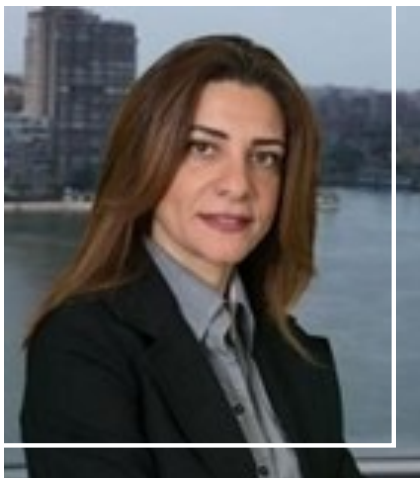

Merit developed an early interest in Strategy, Economics Research and Transformation. She launched her career working in different industries from Telecommunications, Automotive and Banking respectively, where she has a collective solid experience of over 18 years. She is a graduate of the American University in Cairo, where she received her bachelor degrees with High Honors in Business and Economics '01. She obtained her Master's in Business from Edinburgh Business School and is currently a PhD candidate in Paris ISM.

Mona El Helw

Chief Commercial Officer at Talaat Moustafa Group Holding

Ms. El Helw leads the group's sales and marketing operations. She sits on the executive committee and is responsible for overall sales strategy of the company's projects (sales of EGP 21 billion in 1H2021), as well as pricing strategy, payment schemes, cash-flow generation and product ranges. Mona also oversees the overall customer experience, market surveys and represents the company at trade fairs and real estate exhibitions. Previously, Mona was Chief Commercial Officer of Palm Hills Developments where she spent 12 years in progressively senior roles. Mona started her career in investment banking and portfolio management working for HC Securities, Delta Securities, a joint-venture with ABN AMRO, and interned with Morgan Stanley, New York. During her tenure, she held progressively senior positions which included heading portfolio management operations, overall responsibility and oversight of corporate teams, management of all strategic matters, investment strategy as well as client relationships. Mona also assisted in the management of a USD 300 million pension fund.

Mona Mansour

General Partner – Head Of Asset Management

Mona has +20 years of progressive experience in macro and industry research as well as strategy products, she was Chief Economist & Strategist, Director at CI Capital. Mona has an extensive experience in managing IPOs, re-branding existing products specialized industries and economic analysis with qualitative and quantitative coverage.

Mona holds a BA in Business Administration minor in Economics, American University in Cairo, and an MBA from Maastricht School of Management, Holland.

Mona Yassin

Non-executive board member at Egylease.

Yassin has a wide experience in the banking sector. She held the position of Vice Chairman, Banque du Caire, to be the first female appointed to a high post in the national Egyptian banks. She also served as Country Chief Officer for Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank (ADIB) in Iraq and Board Member – nonexecutive, Banque du Caire. In addition, she worked as Senior Credit Officer and Country Risk Manager at Citibank Egypt.

Moreover, she is also the Founder and Vice Chair of the Egyptian Association for the Protection of Competition; an NGO established in Cairo, Egypt in September 2011 as well as Chairperson at inception of the Egyptian Competition Authority (ECA).

Nahla Bassam

Script writer / storyteller - CEO Le Caire pour les Arts

Bassam is the owner of a Facebook charity group called Book it forward. It is a group on Facebook that sells used books donated by the group members and all the cash returns from these sales go to charity. The group aims at increasing social support and contribution to community development.

Bassam holds a bachelor degree in business administration from faculty of commerce, Ain Shams University.

Dr. Nehal Balbaa

Deputy Governor of EL-Beheira governorate

Nehal is currently the Deputy Governor of EL-Beheira governorate. She participated and graduated from the Presidential Leadership Program (PLP) in 2017.

Nehal is an Ambitious Endodontist Msc. member of the Royal College of Surgeons, fully dedicated to civil work aiming at providing decent services to the unfortunate. A Dentist with excellent academic background, reliable and energetic, up to 8 years of very good clinical experience. For more than 2 years, she was Company Director & Coordinator of Up to Dent © Company for organizing dental courses and scientific meetings.

Dr. Nermine Tahoun

Founder & Managing Partner, Tahoun Law Firm

Dr. Tahoun has worked as an international lawyer for a number of international companies, investors and Egyptian government for more than 20 years, and then after, she established Tahoun Law Office in 2009.

Dr. Tahoun has more than 22 years of experience in Corporate Law. Ms. Tahoun is highly involved in drafting legal opinions on a wide range of corporate issues and conducting legal due diligence reports, advisory and other legal services to the government and various private projects.

Nour Elzeny

General Manager Corporate Communication at
Suez Canal bank

Nour Elzeny is currently the General Manager Corporate Communication at Suez Canal bank. In the past, she held several key positions at a number of multinational organizations in Canada and Egypt such as Regional Communication Manager at the Arab Radio & TV (ART) for the Middle East, and North Africa region as well as Marketing & Financial Consultant in financial consulting firms and Bank of Montreal in Canada.

Ms. Elzeny enjoys a long and solid experience spanning 25 years in the fields of Media and Communication.

Noura Hassan

Former Director of Sales for Greece, Cyprus and Malta at Trend Micro IT

As a Managing Director for North Africa and Levant, Noura Hassan was leading business strategies and operations planning in the region, while working with strong and dedicated team to maintain high technical and sales performance.

Noura joined Trend Micro in Jan 2015 where she established numerous business development opportunities.

Having 15+ years of regional and local experience in the field, she managed to bring a wealth of in-depth experience to Security and Networks industry. Noura is currently based in Cairo, Egypt.

OKHTEIN

Egyptian design duo siblings Aya and Mounaz
Abdelraouf

They launched their brand Okhtein – meaning, appropriately, “sisters” in Arabic – because of their vision to bring true luxury back to their home country as well as drawing international attention to the inherent refinement of Egyptian partisanship, sensing a gap in the market for true luxury accessories produced in Egypt.

As a brand, Okhtein is remarkable due to its hyper local manufacturing process. Each Okhtein product has a unique provenance with deep cultural associations. To manufacture their products, Aya and Mounaz felt compelled to take a philanthropic approach to their work out of a desire to incorporate more handmade embroidery and straw into their leather work.

Eng. Ola Balbaa

Wells Engineer, BP, MSc, Renewable energy

Ola is a Wellsite drilling engineer in BP, one of the top energy companies in the world, she works on offshore and onshore rigs managing more than 120 personnel to develop gas wells in the Nile Delta. Ola seeks a leadership role in her career bringing her vision of immediate and strategic value and development.

Ola is a graduate of Gas and petrochemicals Engineering, class 2012, Alexandria University, Egypt, and a Master of Science degree holder in Renewable energy, Alexandria University, Egypt.

Dr. Omaima Idris

Professor of obstetrics & gynecology, Cairo University, Chairwoman of Rofayda Health park

With passion in healthcare management, Dr. Omaima Idris has been appointed as the Director of the Obstetrics and Gynecology Hospital at Cairo University in 1997, as well as the head of the organizing committee of the Obstetrics and Gynecology conference at the Cairo University. Later on, she became the Head of the Obstetrics and Gynecology department, Dar El Fouad Hospital, Cairo, Egypt, one of the top ranked private hospitals in Africa.

Rania Ghareeb

Executive Vice President for Regulatory Affairs and
Legal Affairs, Orange Egypt

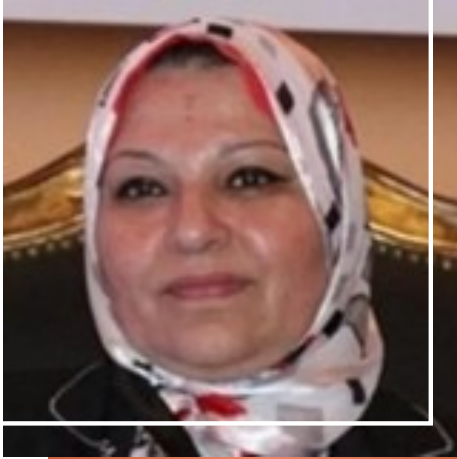

Rania Ghareeb was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Regulatory Affairs and Legal Affairs at Orange Egypt on July 1, 2017. Rania held several positions at Telecom Egypt, the last of which was the Executive Vice President of Legal and Regulatory Affairs. She has extensive experience in corporate governance through membership in the board of directors of several companies in the telecommunications sector, including its membership in Vodafone's Board of Directors. As a lawyer and a registered lawyer in Cairo, she has 18 years of extensive experience in communications laws, regulations, competition laws, government relations, consumer protection and dispute resolution.

Rania George

CEO LUNA Perfume & Cosmetics

Rania has been the Ceo of Luna perfume and cosmetics since 2015. she is also the Vice Chairman of Luna group, which consists of Luna Co. for Industrial Investment, S.A., Luna Co. for Flavors & Fragrances, Ltd, Luna Co. for Food and Chemical Ingredients, free zone , S.A.A, and Egyptian Luna for Trade , Free Zone ,Zarqa , Jordan Ltd.

Sabah Mashaly

Chairman of the Egyptian Electricity Transfer Company (EETC)

She started her career in Cairo University then she moved to electricity sector since 1989 until now. Mashaly is a board member of the General Authority for the Economic Zone of the Gulf of Suez. She is a board member of the Egyptian Electricity Transmission Company, Egypt Regulator, and the high council of Egyptian Engineers Syndicate. Moreover, She is a member of many International Electrical Associations like CERED, Sigre, IEC, in addition to, she represents North Africa region in the AFSEC organization.

Saneya Elnimer

Principal of Continental School

Saneya's journey with special needs began when her youngest daughter was born with a rare congenital heart condition that kept her at hospitals for weeks at a time. During these long stays, Saneya would frequently volunteer around the hospital and began to gain experience in parenting a child with special needs and received training to enable her to manage her daughter's condition and nurture her development. It is then that Saneya began viewing the world through a different lens and appreciating the importance of the role Special Educational facilities provide.

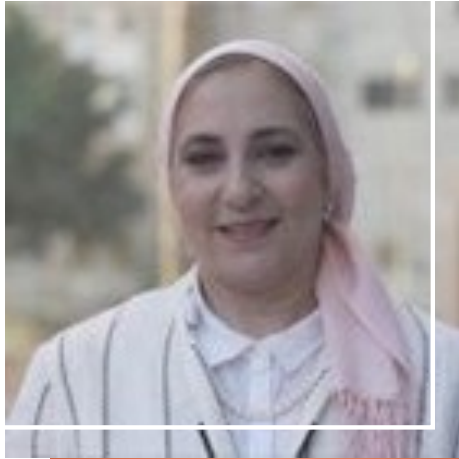

Sara Hamouda

Research Analyst on SDGs/Agenda 2063 and
Regional Coordinator for North Africa Region at the African Union Secretariat for Peer Review
Mechanism

Sara Tawfik Hamouda, the first Egyptian and north African official to be appointed at the African Union Secretariat for Peer Review Mechanism in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Ms. Hamouda works as a Research Analyst for the Agenda 2063 and SDGs and acts as a focal point for the North Africa region. Earlier, she worked at the Cabinet of the Minister of International Cooperation in Egypt as a Senior Economic Researcher in charge of cooperation with the Arab & regional financial institutions, and China from 2008-2015.

Faculty of Economics and Political Sciences, Cairo University. She is also an alumnus of College of Europe in Warsaw.

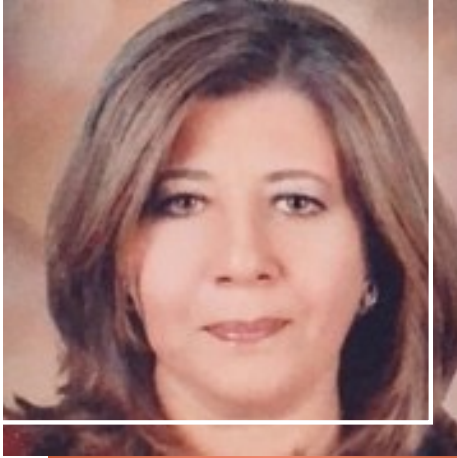

Sherine Sabry

Sustainability Program and Health & Wellness
Marketing project Manager at Dreem Mashreq
Foods

Sherine Sabry is a leader in Knowledge Management, Training Management Development, promoting projects for Sustainable Development for the Persons with Different Abilities (PwDA), and Executive and Life Coach.

Sherine is certified as: Knowledge Management Manager (CKM) by the International Knowledge Management Institute – USA, and Executive & Life Coach by Optimistic Spark Mentorship program from the Academic Accreditation of North America.

Thanaa Afifi

Head of Marketing and Sales, Group GB Auto

Mrs. Thanaa has achieved many successes and professional achievements in Ghabbour Motors Group.

The agent is a group of brands such as Hyundai, Mazda, Geely and Chery, since joining the company and not only during 2018.

The Gabbour Auto Group is one of the leaders in the Egyptian automotive market, and Afafy is the most prominent Contributors maintain this progress and peak market sales.

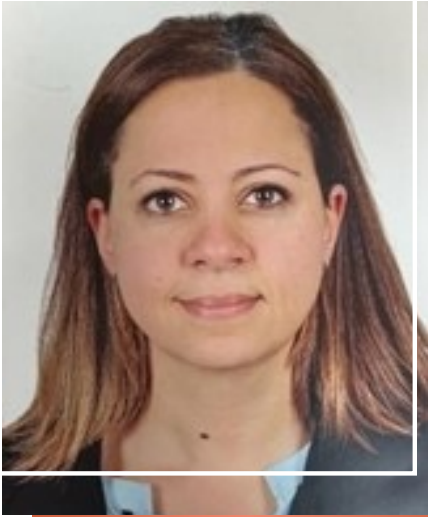

Yasmina Abou Youssef

VP for procurement, marketing and communications at Shores Hotels, and co-founder of Fathet kheir

Ms. Abou Youssef is also an active philanthropist and social entrepreneur. She is currently spearheading a comprehensive development project in Istabl Antar.

Ms. Abou Youssef is leading Tawasol Egypt initiative where the products designs are inspired by traditional Egyptian arts and crafts, and they are all hand-made using locally sourced materials and the perfect Egyptian giveaways.

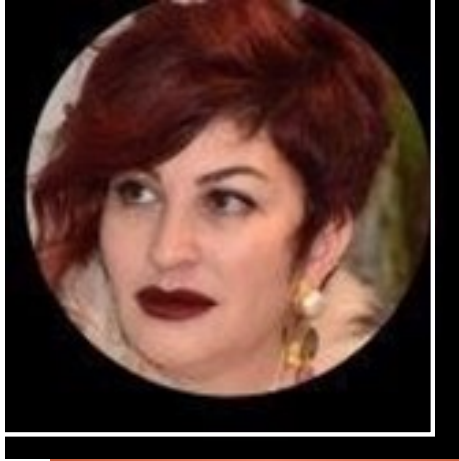

In addition to the Istabl Antar initiative, Ms. Abou Youssef is one of the founders of Fathet Kheir (FK), an Egyptian NGO established in 2000 to assist the families living in Al Hadaba Al Wosta in the Moqattam area.

Yasmine A. Abbas

Assistant Sub-Governor Market sectors, Head of quantitative & modeling analytics desk in the reserve management department at the Central Bank of Egypt.

Mrs. Yasmine A. Abbas is Assistant Sub-Governor for Markets Sector at the Central Bank of Egypt heading the Quantitative Modeling and Risk Analytics (QMRA) department with more than 18 years of experience. She joined CBE in 2006, and since then she has played a major role in laying the foundation for CBE's Reserves Management Unit with the focus on building the necessary Quantitative Modeling and Risk Analytics capacities. Her responsibilities in her current capacity include: setting the Strategic Asset Allocation (SAA) of foreign exchange reserves, benchmark selection, currency allocation, portfolio risk budgeting and asset liability management. Yasmine has expanded the mandate of the QMRA department beyond foreign exchange reserves to focus on the external sector of the Egyptian economy. She developed an External Debt Sustainability framework which assesses and analyzes the sovereign debt structure and its response to macroeconomic shocks. Before joining the CBE, Mrs. Abbas worked in Corporate Credit at the National Societe Generale Bank.

Yasmine Armanious

CEO, EVA Cosmetics

Yasmine Armanious is now the CEO of EVA cosmetics co. Yasmine is a pharmacist graduated in 1999. She started her career in the research and development where she contributed in formulating some of the bestselling products. She started her career in EVA in 2007, she held a managerial position in supply chain then Leading Eva co. operations after that a board member in the industrial chamber of pharmaceutical and cosmetics.

Zakeya Ibrahim

Assistant Sub-Governor Markets sector, Head of money and capital markets team in markets department at the Central Bank of Egypt

She is a CFA Charter Holder. She has also attended several training programs and Seminars at Harvard (completed the certificate of management excellence), the World Bank, the Federal Reserve Bank, and on the job training at several international asset managers. She worked also as Part time instructor in AUC School of Business, Executive Education.

Collectively, she has 15 years of work experience, eleven of which have been with the Central Bank of Egypt.