

Nelly Karim

Egyptian Actress

Nelly Karim was born in Alexandria to an Egyptian father and a Russian mother. She graduated from the Ballet institute at the Art's Academy and thereafter pursued higher studies. Nelly Karim began dancing ballet at the Opera in 1991. In 1999, Nelly starred in the Ramadan trivia show. She has performed in the television series "Wajh al-Qammar" ("Face of the Moon"), "Hadeeth al-Sabah wa al-Masaa" ("Morning and Evening Talk"), "al-Houb al-Kabir" ("Major Love") and "al-Bannat" ("The Girls"). Nelly is married and has two sons.

Jamila Awad

Egyptian Actress

Jamila Awad is an Egyptian actress who was born and raised in an artistic home; as her father is film director Adel Awad, her mother is actress Randa and her grandfather is comedian Mohamed Awad. She attended Faculty of Mass Communication at the MSA university. Her breakthrough came in 2015 with her role as Hania, a young drug addict, in the TV series, Under Control.

Kareem Fahmy

Egyptian Actor

Karim Fahmy is an Egyptian actor, and brother of screenwriter Ahmed Fahmy. He studied in the Faculty of Dentistry in Cairo. He then entered the media after being selected to participate in the TV show "Ard Khas" (Special Screening), playing his real life character: a dentist dreaming of becoming an artist and leaves his job to pursue this dream. However, Fahmy never left his occupation as a dentist. Fahmy also wrote feature film scripts like "Bebo we Basher," "Mr. and Mrs. Eweys," and "Hatoli Ragel" (I Need a Man), in which he also starred.

Majed El Masry

Egyptian Actor

A singer and actor who was born in Tanta. He graduated from Al Azhar University and his talent was discovered in school where he studied the art of popular and classical dance and ballet. He started by singing in night clubs with his wife at the time singer “Mona Ish Ish” where they made their own duet called Maged and Mona. Maged had compiled a singing album that was released in the market but unfortunately it wasn’t very successful. He was discovered and introduced to the cinema by late director Hussam El Din Mostafa in the movie Hekmat Fahmi the Spy. Maged also did some series such as The Twins, For Security Reasons and The Shadow’s Image and he participated in one play.